

(A United Methodist-Related Institution)

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, HUMANITIES, THEOLOGY & EDUCATION (CSSTHE)

NHIR 111: CLASSICAL AFRICAN POLITICAL THOUGHT

END OF FIRST SEMESTER FINAL EXAMINATIONS

MAY /JUNE 2019

LECTURER: AMB. K.D. DHLIWAYO

DURATION: 3 HRS

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer three questions only and start each question on a new page.

Questions carry equal marks

Write legibly.

NHIR 111 Classical African Political Thought

Question 1

Identify and discuss African achievements within the context of the evolution of science and technology since 2 ½ million years ago to about 3200BC.

Question 2

Discuss the scientific evidence that shows that Africa is the origin of the human species.

Question 3

Explain what an idea is and the concepts that led to the creation of centralized authority in Kemet.

Question 4

Provide an analysis of the achievements of the ancient Egyptians in respect of achieving and sustaining food security and their relevance to the modern African States.

Question 5

Discuss and evaluate the evidence upon which PanAfricanism is constructed.

Question 6

Identify specific issues and discuss what you have learnt from this course.

End of Paper