Donna donna

Joan Baez

On a wagon bound for market
There's a calf with a mournful eye
High above him there's a swallow
Winging swiftly through the sky

How the winds are laughing
They laugh with all their might
Laugh and laugh the whole day through
And half the summer's night

"Stop complaining", said the farmer
Who told you a calf to be
Why don't you have wings to fly with
Like the swallow so proud and free

How the winds are laughing
They laugh with all their might
Laugh and laugh the whole day through
And half the summer's night

Donna Donna Donna Don

Calves are easily bound and slaughtered
Never knowing the reason why
But whoever treasures freedom
Like the swallow has learned to fly

How the winds are laughing
They laugh with all their might
Laugh and laugh the whole day through
And half the summer's night

5. Raise the communicative issues of a live musical performance

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal dotted lines, typical of notebook paper. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. In the bottom right corner, the page number "[10]" is printed. There are some faint smudges and marks on the paper, particularly near the top left and center.
