

"Investing in Africa's Future"

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, THEOLOGY, HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION (CSSTHE)

1. Respond to the view that African women's natural duty to remain in the domestic domain has been their greatest undoing.
2. Discuss the importance of gender mainstreaming in the eradication of extreme poverty and hunger in Africa.
3. To what extent does African culture impede the success of African women in politics and business?
4. Use Galtung's triangle of violence to show the forms of violence faced by women in Africa's war torn areas like the Great Lakes Region.
5. "Our women are crying every day due to lack of men to marry and support them economically hence they engage in prostitution" (Magufuli). Do you agree that polygamy is the solution to prostitution in Africa?
6. What do you consider to be the successes and failures of Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf in Liberia?

END OF EXAMINATION