

"Investing in Africa's Future"

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, THEOLOGY, HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION (CSSTHE)

HIR 124 INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OF AFRICAN STATES

END OF SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

APRIL/MAY 2018

LECTURER: Dr. MADENGA, I.R

DURATION: 3 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Do not write your name on the answer sheet. Write your correct AU Reg. Number.

2. Use Answer Sheets Provided. Write legibly in good English.

3. Begin your answer for Each Question on a New Page.

4. Credit is given for Neat Presentation and planning.

5. Answer any three questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. 'A person is a person through other people....We need other human beings in order to be human' (Tutu 2004). To what extent have African States maximised this Ubuntu philosophy?

tributive or restorative justice? Which approach would you recommend as conflict transformation mechanism in Africa?

ther

How can African States develop global partnership without falling into the debt trap or promoting the donor dependency syndrome?

) Comment on the claim that the major challenge to Africa's socio-economic development is that power is in the hands of people without ideas and those with ideas have no power.

ny and how do the Africans want the United Nations reformed?

omment on the view that the International Criminal Court is inappropriately targeting African States.

ther

Comment on the call that 'Real Pan Africanism must result in tangible fruits of development, democracy and a real solidarity amongst African countries.'

) To what extent has the African Union been able to promote interaction and cooperation amongst African States since its formation?

END OF PAPER