DBM

1. Assume Lamido is a prosperous businessman in one African country. He pays less than is required to the Revenue Authority of that country for his business using fraudulent means and corruption. However, he is well known and loved by many people in his community because he helps the poor and orphans and also supports girl students in need of school fees. Because of his popularity, he was elected Member of Parliament (MP) of his constituency.

Make moral judgment of Lamido according to:

- |      |                |            |
|------|----------------|------------|
| i.   | Utilitarianism | [20 marks] |
| ii.  | Kantianism     | [20 marks] |
| iii. | The Bible      | [20 marks] |
| iv.  | African ethics | [20 marks] |
| v.   | Altruism       | [20 marks] |

2. A woman dying of lung cancer asked her caregiver Thomas to promise to send $15 000 that was in her safe to her only relative, James who lived in another part of the country. The woman died a few days later so that only Thomas knew about the money and the promise made. After a few investigations, Thomas found out that James was a spendthrift, gambler, and drunkard. He decided not to tell James about the money and the promise he had made. Instead, Thomas gave the money to a nearby orphanage that needed money to expand its recreational facilities and kitchen.

Make moral judgments of Thomas' action according to:

- |      |                |            |
|------|----------------|------------|
| i.   | Utilitarianism | [20 marks] |
| ii.  | The Bible      | [20 marks] |
| iii. | Kantianism     | [20 marks] |
| iv.  | African ethics | [20 marks] |
| v.   | Ethical egoism | [20 marks] |

3. Assume Martha is a married female Christian State-Registered Nurse who gave birth to twin babies. She however used a drug to kill one of the babies without informing anyone else and she remained with one. The reason why she killed the baby was because her little salary only allowed her to take good care of only one baby and not two as her husband was jobless.

Pass moral judgment on Martha's behavior according to:

- |      |  |            |
|------|--|------------|
| i.   | African Ethics                           | [20 marks] |
| ii.  | Jesus Christ's ethics of Kingdom of God. | [20 marks] |
| iii. | Kantianism.                              | [20 marks] |
| iv.  | Ethics of Responsibility.                | [20 marks] |
| v.   | The Feminist approach to sexuality.      | [20 marks] |
