

“Investing in Africa’s future”

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, HUMANITIES, THEOLOGY & EDUCATION (CSSTHE)

NHIR 222: EVOLUTION OF AFRICAN DIPLOMACY AND PRACTICE

END OF SECOND SEMESTER FINAL EXAMINATIONS

NOVEMBER 2019

LECTURER: LECTURER: MR A. M. RUSERO

DURATION: 3 HRS

INSTRUCTIONS

- Answer any three questions
- You are strongly advised to make reference to contemporary African examples
- All questions carry equal marks (20).
- Marks will be deducted for poor grammatical and spelling errors
- DO NOT repeat material.
- Write legibly.

Question 1

How would you act as a diplomatic advisor to the African Union on Sino-Africa relations from a Pan African and African Renaissance point of view?

Question 2

In what ways is the understanding of the historical evolution of diplomacy relevant to the contemporary African Diplomatic Practice?

Question 3

Write a position paper to the African Union emphasizing on how the current diplomatic practices are a direct borrowing of the diplomatic strategies, symbols and credentials of the pre-colonial diplomatic practice. What needs to be done to preserve the continental diplomatic legacy?

Question 4

Discuss the effects of colonization on the disruption of African diplomatic practice.

Question 5

“The success of OAU diplomatic conquest was the entire decolonization project on the continent.” Discuss the validity of this notion.

Question 6

What have been the major hindrances towards the efficacy of NEPAD as an African initiative?

End of Paper