

"Investing in Africa's Future"

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, THEOLOGY, HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

HHS 425: African Women's History since the 19th Century

END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

APRIL 2018

LECTURER: Mr. E. Mashayamombe

DURATION: (3HRS)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer three questions.

2. Each question carries 20 marks.

1. Account for the rise of African women historiography in the 20th Century.
2. How important is rock art in providing African women history in pre-colonial African societies?
3. How justified is it to equal African women in pre-colonial societies to a class of labour in industrial capitalism?
4. Evaluate the role played by women during the struggle for independence in Zimbabwe?
5. How true is the claim that the post-independence challenges that faced women in the Southern Africa Development Community (SADC) are a legacy colonial imbalance?

END OF EXAMINATION