History of Europe from 1789-1919

Answer any three questions

1. Respond to the view that the May 5, 1789 Estates –General Meeting was a missed opportunity to defuse the “revolutionary spirit” in France.
2. Comment on the claim that the losses of the Industrial Revolution in Britain outweighed the gains.
3. “Unlike Louis xvi, Charles x did not recognize that the ancien regime could not be restored.” How justified is the assertion on the rule of the Bourbons in France from 1815-1830?
4. To what extent did the delegates at the Versailles commit the same errors as those at the Congress of Vienna?
5. “His aims were to grant a minimum of concessions; his instincts were conservative; he was no Tsar Liberator.” Discuss this assessment of Tsar Alexander II.
6. Trace and explain the Balkan origins of the First World.
