

“Investing in Africa’s future”

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, PEACE, LEADERSHIP, AND GOVERNANCE

NPGP 510: FOUNDATIONS OF DEVELOPMENT POLICY

END OF SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATION

APRIL 2023

DR IRIS SHIRIPINDA

DURATION: 3 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer any 4 questions.

Write legibly

Answers with clear examples will be rewarded

TOTAL 100 marks

1) Development work in the 1970s suffered a major setback. Discuss the challenges that the policy makers cite as having contributed to this major setback. Support your answers with two examples. [25 marks]

2) Development Policies are crucial in any development work for a country. Explain the process of coming up with a development policy with examples of the key stakeholders to be involved in this process. [25 marks]

3) Amartya Sen can be said to be the father of Development. He has been the backbone of the Human development reports over many decades. Discuss Sen's contributions to the field of development policy over the past decades with clear examples of how the development paradigm has shifted. [25 marks]

4) Development policy should be gender-aware and gender sensitive. Discuss. [25 marks]

5) Development Policies have to be crafted for both the local and international projects of a country. Describe the difference between these different levels of policies. [25 marks]

6) Development policies should take into consideration the environment. Other scholars have declared this as unnecessary. Explain and discuss your opinion on this. [25 marks]

END OF EXAMINATION