

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, PEACE, LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

NPGP 513: HUMAN RIGHTS AND RULE OF LAW

NPPD 516: HUMAN RIGHTS, DEMOCRACY AND RULE OF LAW

END OF SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

MAY 2021

LECTURER: MR CC DZVUKAMANJA

DURATION: 7 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS

You are required to answer ONE question.

Credit will be awarded for logical, systematic and neat presentations

1. The articulation and observance of human rights, democracy and the rule of law becomes meaningful only when they are seen in the context of local experience. Examine this assertion with examples from developing countries. (100 marks)
2. Big Data, Internet connectivity and artificial intelligence have presented new frontier challenges for the realisation of human rights, democracy and the rule of law. Citing relevant examples, discuss this observation. (100 marks)
3. Covid19 has been a significant stress test for the observance of human rights, democracy and the rule of law. You have been selected to be part and parcel of the UN Secretary General research team and he is desirous to address the UN General Assembly on the futures of human rights, democracy and the rule of law. Write a brief for the UN Secretary General. (100 marks)

END OF EXAMINATION
