Question 4

Drawing insights from the Israel- Hamas War, give an appraisal of morality and International Humanitarian Laws (I.H.L) in regulating the conduct of the armed conflicts in the international system. [30]

Question 5

At the start of 2022, Uganda was already hosting over 1.5 million refugees, making it one of the most important refugee host countries in the world and the largest on the African continent. Uganda is also a global leader in promoting peaceful coexistence and refugee settlement among host communities. Refugees are provided with plots of land for housing and cultivation. Refugees and host communities access the same health facilities, and their children attend schools together.

Using the above insights, comment on the moral significance of international refugee protection regimes in Africa. [30]
