

“Investing in Africa’s future”

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, PEACE, LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

NMPM 415: COMPERATIVE PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

END OF SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATION

LECTURER: MS. DELIAH N. JERANYAMA

TIME: 7 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer ONE question.

Credit is given to application of theory and practice

Plagiarism attracts a penalty

Question 1

Public management involves management of public finances, service delivery systems and natural resources. Using examples, discuss strategies to uphold any six principles of public management. (60 marks)

Question 2

- i. Using examples, conduct an analysis of how public institutions and resources were culturally managed. (15 marks)
- ii. Clearly demonstrate the responsible authorities, guiding principles as well as the changes in the new approach. (30 marks)
- iii. What lessons can be drawn from these cultural approaches? (15 marks)

Question 3

- i. Identify and discuss the central principles guiding new public management. (20 marks)
- ii. You have been tasked to develop strategies to ensure that you transform the government into an 'entrepreneurial government' which promotes competition between service providers. Identify, explain and justify four strategies that you will propose. (40 marks)

END OF EXAMINATION