

AFRICA
UNIVERSITY®

A United Methodist-Related Institution

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, THEOLOGY, HUMANITIES & EDUCATION

INSTITUTE OF THEOLOGY & RELIGIOUS STUDIES

NTCS 610 Ethics and Development
END OF FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

AUGUST-DECEMBER, 2025

LECTURER: REV. G.O. ACHAR, PhD

DURATION: 3 HOURS

---

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer ANY THREE (3) questions.
  2. Start each question on a new page in your booklet.
  3. All questions carry equal marks.
  4. Credit will be awarded for legible, logical, systematic and neat presentation.
  5. Do not repeat material.
-

INSTRUCTION: Answer ANY THREE (3) questions

Question 1

Critically examine the significance of moral philosophy in shaping the development of your community. [100 marks].

Question 2

Using relevant examples, evaluate justice as an ethical framework for decision-making in your country. [100 marks]

Question 3

Examine the importance of foundation ethics and development in your country.

[100 marks].

Question 4

Citing relevant examples, discuss the importance of funding for development in your community. [100 marks].

Question 5

Examine the role of ethics of responsibility in relation to the distribution of resources and opportunities for development within your community. [100 marks]

Question 6

Thoroughly analyze four different methods of ethically distributing responsibility within your community. [100marks].

-THE END OF EXAM-

---