DBM

1. Church administration is effective with good organization, availability of physical resources and an appropriate theology.
 - a) With reference to principles of management you have learnt in this course, give an assessment of the use of physical resources at your local church. [40]
 - b) Defend the claim that good church organization reflects the church's theology. In your defense, refer to the organizational structures associated with the United Methodist Church using the connectional polity. [60]
2. Administrative leadership is an asset to church leadership.
 - a) With reference to principles of church leadership, which you have learnt in this course, explore the activities that you would recommend to your local church to prepare good leaders. [40]
 - b) Given the importance of administrative leadership for now and the future of a church, evaluate the programmes put in place to train and prepare leaders for administrative leadership in your church. [60]
3. Planning, organizing, executing church programmes and managing the church's financial resources are some of the key functions of administrative leadership.
 - a) With reference to any five [5] principles of financial resource management, give a critical assessment of the financial resource management at your local church. [40]
 - b) Compare and contrast an incorporated church and a non-incorporated church, justifying which of the two church structures makes church administration effective. [60]
