

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, THEOLOGY, HUMANITIES AND EDUCATION

COURSE CODE: NHIR 315

END OF FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

AUGUST/DECEMBER 2021

LECTURER: MR L CHIROZVA

DURATION: 5 HRS

INSTRUCTIONS

You are required to answer questions as instructed in each section

Answer ONE question only

Credit will be awarded for logical, systematic and neat presentations

QUESTION 1

Through the application of International Law principles, provide an assessment on the limitations of International Law in context of context Maritime Delimitation in the Indian Ocean (Somalia v. Kenya) [100 Marks]

QUESTION 2

The African Union established the African Union Commission on International Law an independent advisory organ of the Union in accordance with the Article 5(2) of the Constitutive Act. One of the objectives of the AUCIL is to assist in the revision of existing treaties, and assist in the identification of areas in which new treaties are required and prepare drafts thereof.

Suppose you are one of the 11 members of recognized competence in International Law, who are nationals of Members States who serves in their own personal capacities, prepare a document on how African States need to adhere to the Law of Treaties [100 Marks]

QUESTION 3

The Institute of African International Relations (IAIR) encourages young people to cultivate the characteristics that turn good students into great writers: independent thought, depth of knowledge, clear reasoning, critical analysis and persuasive style. The IAIR Essay Competition invites students to explore a wide range of challenging and interesting questions within the confines of the “State responsibility and International law”. Entering an essay in this competition can build knowledge, and refine skills of argumentation. It also gives students the chance to have their work assessed by experts.

As an International Relations student propose a topic and write any essay on State Responsibility in International Law you would want to send to the Institute of African International Relations (IAIR) for consideration [100 Marks]

The End