Questions

1. Effective psychiatric rehabilitation of mentally-ill clients demands the involvement of all stakeholders. With the aid of examples, demonstrate how traditional healers may intervene in the management of mental illness in Africa.
2. Social workers have been valuable players in the field of psychiatry alongside other professionals such as medical doctors, psychologists and psychiatrists. Examine challenges faced by psychiatric social workers in the field of psychiatry and show how social workers may address such challenges?
3. Ministry of health and child care works with other non-governmental organisations in the promotion of the welfare of psychiatric clients. With the aid of practical examples, illustrate how government may strengthen collaboration with NGOs and demonstrate the implications of such collaboration to mental health service delivery for psychiatric clients.
