

“Investing in Africa’s future”

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, PEACE, LEADERSHIP & GOVERNANCE

NMPM 317 GOVERNMENT & POLITICS IN AFRICA

END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATION

NOVEMBER 2021

LECTURER: TALKMORE GEZANA

Answer one question

The mark allocations are shown against each question.

Please make sure you clearly understand the demands of each question before answering.

You are compelled to discuss as a Government & Politics in Africa student.

Application of learnt concepts shall be rewarded

Clearly number your work. Credit will be awarded for logical, systematic and neat work.

Plagiarism and duplication of other student’s work shall be penalised

Question One

Discuss with examples Frantz Fanon's "The Pitfalls of National Consciousness" and Kwame Nkrumah's "Neocolonialism: The Last Stage of Imperialism". (100 marks)

Question Two

Conflict can either be regarded as a necessary ingredient for social ingenuity or destructive force to development. Discuss in detail the effects of conflict on the African Continent and what could be done right? (100 marks)

Question Three

Most African countries advocated for the return to constitutionalism. Discuss how your nation of choice implemented the process of constitutionalism and highlight the positives and challenges that have been faced. (100 marks)

END OF EXAMINATION