"Investing in Africa's future"

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, PEACE, LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

PPG 503: ARCHITECTURE OF GOVERNANCE IN AFRICA

JANUARY 2020

DURATION: (3 HRS)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Answer ALL question in Section A, TWO questions in Section B.
2. Use only the Examination Answer Book provided. Obtain a Continuation Answer Book if necessary.
3. Write legibly and concisely
4. You are expected to give a critical analysis of each question.
5. If you cite the works of any author, make sure you give credit and acknowledgement to that author.
6. Provide the following information on the cover page of the Examination Answer Book.
   6.1 Write your University I.D. number clearly in the space provided. Do not write your name on the Answer Book.
   6.2 Write the Course Code & Course Title indicated above in the space provided.
   6.3 For Faculty write 'IPLG'
   6.4 For Programme write ''
   5.5 For Academic Year write 2018/9

   5.6 For Semester Number write 'ONE'

SECTION A: COMPULSORY QUESTION

1. As a Pan-African policy expert discuss how de-coloniality can be used towards the development of a new public administration theory and a new governance architecture for Africa. (40)

SECTION B: ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS FROM THIS SECTION

2. From a policy perspective analyse the extent to which the politics of predation have contributed towards the shaping of contemporary governance frameworks in Africa and ways corrective measures can be instituted. (20)

3. Discuss the circumstances around the failure of NEPAD in Africa. How can future governance frameworks be saved from a similar fate as Africa embraces Agenda 2063. (20)

4. As a policy expert how does a scenario where there is conflation between ruling party, Military and Government affect the policy position and general conformity to established rules by political elites. Use examples from your own country (20)

5. How can public policy be used towards the functional operationalization of regional and supra-regional governance Institutions as Africa embraces the concept of regional-integration. (20)

End of document